ROYAL CARIBBEAN INTRODUCES HOTEL BOOKING ENGINE, ROYAL CARIBBEAN HOTELS

New System, Powered By Priceline, Has Thousands of Hotel Options for Pre- and Post-cruise Adventures

MIAMI, March 16, 2022 – Today, Royal Caribbean International launched a hotel booking engine to make it easy for vacationers to opt in for additional days of adventure before or after their cruise. Royal Caribbean Hotels, powered by Priceline, offers exclusive rates with thousands of hotels in every Royal Caribbean departure and arrival port, including those in the Caribbean, Europe, Asia-Pacific as well as North, South and Central America.

Adventure seekers who have booked a Royal Caribbean cruise can seamlessly arrange hotel accommodations that are pre-filtered based on the number of travelers in their group, the sailing's departure or arrival city, and dates. Options can also be further customized by preferences, such as the hotel rating, amenities and specific location within the city. Whether planning a long-awaited vacation or an impromptu getaway, Royal Caribbean Hotels minimizes travelers' time spent planning to maximize every moment of their memorable vacation.

Royal Caribbean Hotels is now available to vacationers living in the U.S., Canada and Mexico, and their travel advisors. For more details about the cruise line's new booking engine, visit Royal Caribbean's website. Travel partners can gain access on Cruising Power.
