ROYAL CARIBBEAN ANNOUNCES CRUISE VACATION SAVINGS FOR U. S. MILITARY SERVICEMEN

MIAMI, October 28, 2008 – To honor and welcome home the brave women and men who have served or are serving in the armed forces of the United States, Royal Caribbean International today announced a special offer of up to $200 off per stateroom for active and retired military personnel. Veterans and servicemen who make a new cruise booking between now and November 30, 2008, for any upcoming sailings through the end of 2009, will receive $50 off per stateroom for three- to five-night cruises; $100 off per stateroom for six- to nine-night cruises; and $200 off per stateroom for 10-night cruises and longer. The special savings for members of the U.S. military can be extended up to two additional staterooms for family and friends to share in a memorable reunion and vacation.

The special savings can be applied to the full range of Royal Caribbean International itineraries (except for Oasis of the Seas), from three and four-night cruises out of Florida to seven-night and longer cruises departing from ports around the world. For example, convenient short cruise getaways departing Miami on Majesty of the Seas are currently available for as low as $104 per person with the savings applied. Seven-night cruise vacations, such as Southern Caribbean itineraries departing San Juan, Puerto Rico, aboard Adventure of the Seas and Alaska itineraries departing Seward, Alaska, aboard Radiance of the Seas are available for as low as $349 and $549 per person, respectively. Or, 14-night Australia and New Zealand long cruises departing in January 2009 from Sydney aboard Rhapsody of the Seas are as low as $799 per person. All sample rates are based on double occupancy with the applicable savings applied. Fuel supplement also will apply.

To take advantage of the incredible savings for a Royal Caribbean International cruise vacation, veterans and current servicemen should contact their travel agent, call (800) ROYAL-CARIBBEAN, or visit www.royalcaribbean.com.

Royal Caribbean International is a global cruise brand with 21 ships currently in service and two under construction. The line also offers unique cruisetour vacations in Alaska and Canada, Asia, Australia and New Zealand, Europe, and South America.
